Adult Summer Reading Kickoff

June 3

10am-2pm Waynesville
12pm-4pm Canton

Summer reading isn’t just for kids! At Haywood County libraries, summer reading for adults means great book suggestions and fun prizes for all book lovers.

The Adult Summer Reading Program - Monday, June 3rd-Friday, August 30th.

Area adults are invited to celebrate this year’s theme by reading books and engaging in fun activities on your own, as well as by attending library events with others.

We are celebrating with kickoff events on:

- Monday, June 3rd from 10-2 at the Waynesville Library, 678 S. Haywood St and Monday, June 3rd from 12-4 at the Canton Library, 11 Pennsylvania Avenue.

Sign up in person during this time at either library and get a delicious handmade cookie and a reusable tote bag. Sign up after June 3rd at any branch and receive a tote bag. Your registration packet will include 6 activity cards - return up to all six for a chance to win great prizes. Prize winners will be contacted Monday, September 9th.

All Summer Reading programs generously sponsored by the Friends of the Library.

For more information, visit www.haywoodlibrary.org or call 828-452-5169 (Waynesville) or 828-648-2924 (Canton).
